Introduction to the Different Genres of VO

Question: How is VO like an onion?

Answer: VO has many layers just like an onion!

Come learn all the different genres of VO you can work in, each of which takes specific skills. Then find the genre most marketable for your voice.

This is an introduction about VO genres and which one your natural voice would lend itself to.

Participants will get a chance to explore on mike what their “natural” “real” voice is.

Follow up workshops will focus on specific genres based on participant interest, including some of these categories:

ADR for TV, ADR for Films and ADR for animation, also covers Voice matching

Animation:

- Children's Cartoons
- Adult Cartoons (that would be "real life" characters like Simpsons)
- Anime (Japanese cartoon)
- Multimedia educational videos

Audio Books – Multiple Genres

Commercials

Promos for TV

Video Games

YOUR INSTRUCTOR: ADRIENNE ELLIS

Adrienne Ellis currently has over 35 audio books for sale on Amazon.com. In addition to being a working professional actor SAG/AFTRA she has a MFA from UCLA and a teaching credential from Sac State. Training teachers internationally, and presenting at community colleges in California for the Foundation of Community Colleges, gives her a unique perspective on how students learn and how to apply that knowledge in the classroom setting. Utilizing “MULTIPLE INTELLIGENCES” by Howard Gardner she applies the theory of how students learn into every lesson.
